

Barbara Ainsworth, BA Hons Prehistory (ANU), Post-Grad Dip Mus Studs (Vic College), MA Public History (Monash)

Barbara Ainsworth is Curator, Monash Museum of Computing History (MMoCH), Faculty of Information Technology, Monash University. After completing a BA Hons in Prehistory at ANU in 1979, Barbara took up a position at the Gold Museum, Ballarat, and was appointed Curator from 1986-1993.

She continued studies with a Post-Grad Dip in Museum Studies and a MA in Public History at Monash University. Since 2007, she cares for the MMoCH collection and researches the history of Australian computing with a focus on Monash University. She works with the ICT Heritage Project, Pearcey Foundation.

Barbara was introduced to the Crabtree Foundation by Chris Avram in 2016.